

APPLICATION FOR 2019 PARTICIPATION IN A LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

PATHWAYS Leadership for Progress is a leadership program and is now accepting applications from highly qualified undergraduate students with financial need commencing studies in October 2019. The goals of the PATHWAYS program are to 1) develop the student's leadership ability through supporting their efforts to improve their community, 2) facilitate the education and encourage career development of individuals who are highly qualified academically, motivated, and dedicated to improving their country, 3) provide mentoring to establish the future leader in his/her career and to assure the successful implementation of the community project and 4) foster lifelong civic-minded collaborations among youth from different ethnicities. Along with participation in this program is the availability of fee assistance to those accepted to the University of Nairobi, Kenyatta University main campus, Jomo Kenyatta University of Science and Technology main campus and Technical University of Kenya, Nairobi. Only students under the regular/module I programme are eligible

Requirements

- Copy of Admission letter from the University
- KCSE overall grade average of B or higher.
- Demonstrated financial need.
- Strong interpersonal, communication and educational skills.
- Be willing to identify a public primary school and offer mentorship to the pupils
- Be willing to identify a local/community women's/youth self-help group and through PATHWAYS guidance assist them in starting and running a table banking enterprise and be willing to train them on how to start and succeed in running one or more income generating activities.
- Make and upload a 2-3 min video of the effects of climate change in your community. Include interviews where appropriate. Write ½ page about the video and what you and your community would like to do about the issue. Background information can be found here for instance: <http://meas.nema.go.ke/unfccc/climate-change-in-kenya/>
- Three letters of recommendation from three different people in leadership positions who are familiar with your abilities and character (e.g. secondary school teachers/educational professionals, local administrators, religious leaders) (attach).
- Copies of KCPE/KCSE official results certificate (attach).
- Recent photo of student smiling (will not be returned).

Note: Preference will be given to students from disadvantaged groups such as AIDS orphans and girls and applicants born in poor outlying counties. Finalists will be asked to appear for an interview. Please be mindful that this is a leadership program not a scholarship. Those selected will be expected to uphold the highest ethical standards, obtain grades of B plain or higher, communicate with PATHWAYS leaders and other scholars at least monthly, volunteer to the successful running of the PATHWAYS program, partner with other scholars to develop businesses that will support communities and Kenya overall throughout their lives. Success in meeting all but the last expectation will be required for continuation in the program.

Support: The program will cover most of the student's university expenses toward a Bachelor's degree not covered by any government or private grants for 2 semesters per year contingent upon satisfactory progress each year. The student is also expected to apply to PATHWAYS for a small grant to start the women's table banking enterprise as well as support for the mentoring program and climate change solutions.
